Dear Mr. Baron:

We have not ~~not~~ chatted in several years)
but your recent catalogue #41 has ~~caused me to communicate~~.
caused me to communicate.

In your item #195 you have a Hodges 1864
which is deshoued and has a torn title page with no loss.

Here is my proposition, I have an 1862 Hodges in lovely internal condition with U.S Treasury notes described and listed on the final page. Its spine has been repaired. Its covers are nice. I will exchange it with you for your piece assuming the ^{and spine} covers can be put back on yours, and ~~the~~ made presentable. I will try to repair your ~~the~~ torn title page. ~~the~~

If you are interested please send yours and I'll send mine. ~~the~~ the exchange ought to benefit both of us.

My kindest regards,
